

Poster Contest - "What Home Means to Me"

Posted: June 2010

The National Association of Housing and Redevelopment Officials (NAHRO) is holding a poster contest for children associated with affordable housing and community development programs (i.e., public housing, Section 8-assistance, rehabilitation projects, etc). If you reside in housing supported directly by the Housing Authority of Yamhill County, we want to encourage your participation in this national contest.

Theme

This year's theme will be "What Home Means to Me."

Ages

Elementary- Kindergarten to 5th; Middle- 6th to 8th; and High- 9th to 12th

Size

No larger than 22" X 28"

Materials

Contestants may use any art media, but please consider that posters will need to be mailed and reproduced.

Identification

Be sure and write your name and address on the back.

Prizes

National winners will be announced at the National Conference and Exhibition in Reno, Nevada in October. The Grand Prize winner will receive a $500 savings bond, their poster on the cover of a 2011 calendar, and a trip to Washington, D.C. Twelve other honorees will receive $100 savings bonds and be included in the 2011 calendar.

Local Activity

The Housing Authority of Yamhill County will be hosting several workshops during July. Space is limited, so please contact Bruce Sahagian (503) 883-4313.

Due Date

Whether you participate in a workshop or create your own poster independently, all entries are due by August 11, 2010 in our McMinnville office at 135 NE Dunn Place.

Additional Information

Please contact Bruce Sahagian (503) 883-4313 or visit www.nahro.org/poster.cfm for full contest rules.
