FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HOUSING AUTHORITY APPOINTS NEW EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

After a nationwide search, the Board of Commissioners of the Housing Authority of Yamhill County (HAYC) has selected Massey Casper as their new Executive Director. Massey will be joining HAYC on July 9, 2018 and is replacing Elise Hui who will be leaving the agency after almost 18 years to move to Florida.

HAYC and its non-profit arm, the Yamhill County Affordable Housing Corporation (YCAHC), provide housing assistance to low-income citizens throughout Yamhill County. A full range of services is offered, including rental subsidies, non-subsidized workforce rental housing, special needs housing, self-sufficiency programs, and homeownership education and assistance.

Joyce Morrow, Board Chair for HAYC, said that prior to joining HAYC Massey worked at the Providence Housing Authority in Rhode Island as an Associate Director of Facilities Management administering and implementing a comprehensive program of corrective and preventative maintenance for the 3rd largest housing authority in New England consisting of 2,600 public housing apartments. Massey also served as Director of Finance and Administration for the Marlborough Community Development Authority; as Senior Asset Manager for Madison Park Development Corporation; and as Financial Analyst for WinnResidential. He is an MBA graduate from Johnson and Wales in Rhode Island and has certifications from the Project Management Institute, Massachusetts NAHRO, National Apartment Association; and NeighborWorks America. Massey is passionate about finding innovative solutions to develop and preserve affordable housing.
